Monthly Education Series - Power through the afternoon slump

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM MST

Emily Dilbeck,
emily@trilakeschamber.com

Here's the thing about wanting to take that cat nap in the early afternoon: It's completely natural. Energy levels dip right around seven hours after you wake up, causing you to crave some shuteye. On top of that, there are several things that make an afternoon slump worse, like eating a carb-heavy lunch or sitting still for too long at your desk.

Monthly Education Series - Crash Course on Google Analytics

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM MST

Emily Dilbeck,

emily@trilakeschamber.com

Wouldn't it be nice if you could read the minds of your customer? Well, thanks to Google Analytics, that dream has become more of a reality... Lets be honest, most people know about Google Analytics but just as much fail to understand the many benefits of integrating this powerful tool.

Google Analytics is a uber-useful tool for any marketer to fully understand the behaviors of their potential customer, including details such as location, what they click, when they click, and when they exit a page.

Monthly Education Series - Social Media 101

11:30 AM - 01:00 PM MST

Emily Dilbeck,
emily@trilakeschamber.com

We hear about social media constantly: who tweeted this, who instagrammed that, did you see her story, did you pin that decor idea? It's enough to make your head spin. The digital world, especially with its fast-growing social media trends, is overwhelming. If it's tough to navigate and even tougher to keep up with, why is social media so important? These days, social media is unavoidable. Almost everyone uses it – but there is a difference between using social media and using it well. And that difference is having a social media strategy.
